INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON HIGHER EDUCATION ON HIGHER EDUCATION

University of Vic & Creaccio

Creacció, Osona's regional development agency, is described in this presentation. Creacció was founded to combine the efforts and resources of various territorial agents. The aim was to improve the coordination, efficiency and impact of economic development programmes. Creacció is a public company, led by local government, universities and economic and social agents.

It focuses on 3 areas: business advice, entrepreneurship and employment services. At supra-municipal level, it is in charge of coordinating municipal services and the development of new, strategic, innovative projects.
